INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

The Board of Directors of Chatham-Kent Hospice Foundation

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of Chatham-Kent Hospice Foundation which comprise the statement of financial position at as March 31, 2017 and the statements of operations, changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian Accounting Standards for Not-For-Profit Organizations and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit includes performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on my judgment, including assessments of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, I consider internal controls relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my qualified audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

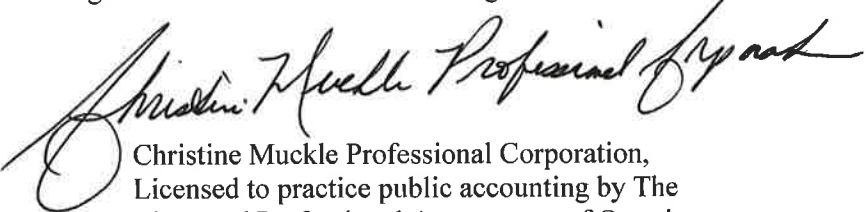

In common with many charitable organizations, the Foundation derives its revenue from donations, the completeness of which is not susceptible of satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, my verification of donations revenue was limited to the amounts recorded in the records of the Foundation and I was not able to determine whether any adjustment might be necessary to revenue, excess of revenue over expenditures, assets, liabilities and net assets.

Qualified Opinion

In my opinion, except for the effect of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Chatham-Kent Hospice Foundation as at March 31, 2017, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian Accounting Standards for Not-For-Profit Organizations.

Under this method restricted contributions are recognized in the year the corresponding expenditure is incurred. Cash consists of amounts on deposit. For financial instrument purposes cash has been classified as held for trading.

Financial instruments classification

Short term investments have been classified as held-to-maturity. Accounts receivables have been classified as loans and receivables and are reported at amortized cost using effective interest method. Accounts payable and accrued liabilities have been classified as other and are reported at amortized cost using effective interest method.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian Accounting Standards for Not-For-Profit Organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the year. Actual amounts could differ from those estimates.

Gifts in kind

Donations of gifts in kind are recorded at fair market value.
