Call for Expression of Interest for the Chatham Kent Hospice Inc. Board of Directors

Hospice care is not as much about dying as it is about living – living each day and each moment to the fullest. We are there to help our residents live each day with dignity.

Chatham-Kent Hospice is a 10-bed residential hospice that serves the community of Chatham-Kent by providing care and engaging our community to change how families live the important experiences of end of life.

The following is information and application for the Board of Directors and/or Community Representatives. Thank you for your interest in the Governance of Chatham-Kent Hospice.

Through this recruitment, the Board is seeking individuals with strong leadership potential. Candidates are welcomed from a broad and diverse spectrum of industries and community segments. Healthcare/Clinical Quality Measurement, Human Resource/Labour Relations, Organizational management experience, a legal background, and experience on community boards and/or knowledge of governance processes will be considered as important. Bilingual abilities in French and English are a plus. This package provides information on the Board including “Duties and Expectations of a Board Director”, “Code of Conduct”, “Conflict of Interest” and “Board Confidentiality” and a formal member application form.

Each Board Member is required to sit on one of our Standing Committees. These are Finance, Governance and Quality Committees. In addition, we also require Community Representatives to sit on these committees as well as our Volunteer Committee. In the body of the application, you will be asked to indicate if you are interested in applying to be a Board Member, Community Representative, or either.

Our Mission

We provide end-of-life care and grief support that nurtures relationships for all.

Our Vision

Together, we create a community where the best possible end-of-life care and grief support are available

Our Values

Caring, Dignity, Excellence, Integrity, Inclusivity, Collaboration.

Chatham Kent Hospice welcomes all members of the community, regardless of race, national origin, colour, political affiliation, religion, age, sexual orientation, economic circumstance or disability.

Chatham Kent Hospice welcomes and encourages applications from people with disabilities. Accommodations are available on request for candidates taking part in all aspects of the selection process.

Thank you for applying to the Chatham Kent Hospice Board and Committees. All Applicants will be contacted.

CKH-G2-Conflict of Interest

1. Description of Conflict of Interest

- a. No Volunteer or external organization shall gain in any way from involvement with the Chatham Kent Hospice Inc. except through strict adherence to the conflict of interest procedure.
- b. The situations in which potential conflict of interest may arise cannot be exhaustively set out but some general examples are included below.
- c. Conflicts generally arise in the following situations:
 - i. Interest of a Volunteer “Wearing Two Hats” When a Volunteer transacts with the corporation directly or indirectly. When a Volunteer has a significant direct or indirect interest in a transaction or contract with the corporation. Failing to disclose is an offence under the Corporations Act, resulting in liability being imposed on the Volunteer for any profit realized from the contract and a penalty on conviction.
 - ii. Interest of a Relative When the corporation conducts business with suppliers of goods or services or any other party of which a relative or member of the household of a Volunteer is a principal, officer or representative.
Gifts When a Volunteer or a member of the Volunteer’s household or any other person or entity designated by the Volunteer, accepts gifts, payments, services or anything else of more than a token or nominal value from a party with whom the corporation may transact business (including a supplier of goods or services) for the purposes of (or that may be perceived to be for the purposes of) influencing an act or decision of the Board.
 - iii. Acting for an Improper Purpose When Volunteers exercise their powers motivated by self-interest or other improper purposes. Volunteers must act solely in the best interest of the corporation. Volunteers who are nominees of a particular group must act in the best interest of the corporation even if this conflicts with the interests of the nominating party.
 - iv. Appropriation of Corporate Opportunity When a Volunteer diverts to his or her own use an opportunity or advantage that belongs to the corporation.

2. Procedure

- a. Volunteers and their businesses are allowed to supply services, products and enter into contracts with the CKH provided they closely follow the following process. The purpose of the process is to eliminate any real or perceived conflict of interest, or unfair advantage that the Hospice Volunteers might have over the general public. The effect of such an unfair advantage would be to damage the reputation of the CKH or its leadership.

3. The Process

- a. The Volunteer will declare their conflict of interest (or their perception of another Volunteer's) at the first meeting of the Volunteers after which they became aware;

- i. Request that the declaration be recorded in the minutes of that meeting;
- ii. The presiding chairperson to determine what level of participation is appropriate as follows:
- iii. Leave room during discussion
- iv. Stay but do not participate
- v. Stay, participate but do not vote
- vi. The presiding chairperson to notify the Executive Director if not present.
- b. If there is a disagreement about whether a conflict of interest exists, the matter shall be decided by the presiding chairperson, subject to challenge by a majority vote of the remaining Volunteers present at the meeting. The Volunteer who is the subject of the issue shall not vote on any appeal of the chairperson's decision.

4. Process for Resolution of Conflicts and Addressing Breaches of Duty

- a. All Volunteers shall comply with the requirements of the By-laws. It is acknowledged that not all conflicts or potential conflicts may be satisfactorily resolved by strict compliance with the by-laws. There may be cases where the perception of a conflict of interest or breach of duty may be harmful to the corporation notwithstanding that there has been compliance with the by-laws.
- b. A Volunteer may be referred to the process outlined below in any of the following circumstances:

i. Circumstances for Referral

Where any Volunteer believes that that Volunteer or another Volunteer:

1. Has breached their duties to the corporation;
2. Is in a position where there is a potential breach of duty to the corporation;
3. Is in a situation of actual or potential conflict of interest; or,
4. Has behaved or is likely to behave in a manner that is not consistent with the highest standards of public trust and integrity and such behavior may have an adverse impact on the corporation.

ii. Process for Resolution

The matter shall be referred to the following process:

1. Refer matter to the Chair or where the issue may involve the Chair, to any Vice-Chair, with notice to the Executive Director.
2. Chair (or Vice-Chair as the case may be) may either (i) attempt to resolve the matter informally, or (ii) refer the matter to an ad hoc sub-committee of the Board established by the Chair in which the sub-committee shall report to the Board.
3. If the matter cannot be informally resolved to the satisfaction of the Chair (or Vice-Chair as the case may be), the Volunteer referring the matter and the Volunteer involved, then the Chair shall refer the matter to the process in (b)(ii) above.

Chatham Kent Hospice Inc.
